Spring 2018 International Student Orientation Schedule

*Schedule is subject to change

Day 1, Tuesday, January 16, 2018

9:00 AM - 9:30 AM · Check-In · Student Life Events Center (Annex I)

Attendance will be taken each morning of the orientation.

- Welcome Address: All new students will be welcomed to SF State. A short review of the orientation schedule will be provided.
- Culture shock and Campus Services: Tips will be provided on adjusting to a new culture and interacting with University faculty, staff and students.
- Tips from SF State Faculty: Learn how to succeed at SF State from the perspective of current SF State faculty.
- Tips from SF State Students: Learn how to succeed at SF State from the perspective of current SF State students.

12:30 PM - 1:30 PM · Information Fair

This is your opportunity to ask questions to campus representatives who will be in attendance from various University departments.

1:30 PM - 2:30 PM (no check in after 2:30PM) · F-1 Document Check In

Students are required to bring the following items:

- Passport and your current I-20
- Photocopy (Paper) of the biographic page of your passport.
- Photocopy (Paper) of the I-94 arrival record. Please look up your I-94 Arrival Record online by visiting <https://i94.cbp.dhs.gov/> and print out the record.

*You can make photocopies of your documents at the J. Paul Leonard Library or Cesar Chavez Student Center. Write down your full name and 9-digit SF State student ID number on the back of each photocopy. You do not need to write down your full name and SF State ID at the back of your I-20.

Day 2, Wednesday, January 17, 2018

9:30 AM · Composition for Multilingual Students Placement Test (CMSPT) - Undergraduate Students Only · Humanities Building, Room: TBD

This CMSPT is designed to measure your ability to write, read and edit in English. This exam is required for students wishing to take CMS English courses. The test is approximately 2 hours.

1:30 PM · International Graduate Student Orientation, Humanities Building, Room 109

All incoming F-1 graduate students must attend this session. Representatives from the Division of Graduate Studies will discuss graduate studies policies and procedures as they pertain to international students studying at SF State.

Day 3, Thursday, January 18, 2018

International Undergraduate Academic Advising Session

- Check in at 9:00AM in the lobby of Cesar Chavez Student Center.
- All F-1 undergraduate students who did not attend the New Student Orientation in December 2017 and January 2018 are required to attend this session.
- You must clear all registration holds by purchasing SF State sponsored health insurance and submit proof of MMR immunization to Registrar's Office BEFORE attending this session.
- This session will help you enroll in courses for your first semester.
