Friday, February 22

2-4pm

Library Events Room 121
(1st Floor, J. Paul Leonard Library)

This workshop is conducted by Mr. James Mayock, a California State Bar Certified Specialist in immigration law who has been practicing in the SF Bay Area for over 35 years. Mr. Mayock is a past chair of the Immigration Committee of the Bar Association of San Francisco. He has served in a number of capacities at both the local and national level with the American Immigration Lawyers Association, including lobbyist, litigation coordinator and media liaison for the local chapter. Mr. Mayock is a member of SHRM (Society for Human Resource Management), NCHRA (Northern California Human Resource Association), ASHHRA (American Society for Healthcare Resources Administration) and the National Association of Healthcare Recruiters (NAHCR). This workshop is designed for international students and scholars who are interested in learning more about the myths and realities involved in obtaining U.S. permanent residency as well as discussion of the H-1B visa process. Participants will be able to receive in-depth and comprehensive information on the various methods open to international students and scholars interested in learning more about the H-1B visa process and U.S. permanent residency. Plenty of time will be available to answer individual questions.

More information about Mr. Mayock is available at: <http://www.emvisa.com/content/james-r-mayock>

Will you be seeking employment in the United States after graduation? Do you have questions regarding H-1B visas, labor certification, PERM and employment-based permanent residency? Are you confused about the H-1B "cap" and the "cap gap?" How long are H-1B visa numbers likely to last, and what is the earliest date for submitting an H-1B petition? What about those 20,000 extra H-1B visa slots for those with U.S. master's degrees or higher? Can I qualify for a green card if I invest in the U.S.? What are my options under current U.S. immigration law?

Understand strategies for processional visas (H-1B) in a workshop presented by our featured speaker, and immigration lawyer Mr. Martin J. Lawler, from the law firm of Lawler and Lawler in San Francisco. Listed in "Best Lawyers of America," Mr. Lawler has over 35 years of experience in immigration law and is the author of several books. Workshop topics include: New developments in employer sponsored green cards, how to avoid quota backlogs and limited H-1B Visas, immigration approved regional centers, real estate limited partnership investments, how to gift funds for substantial investment, E-2 visas (Temporary Investor Visas), and much more!

Additional information about Mr. Lawler is available at: <http://www.aboutvisas.com>

All Workshops are FREE to SF State Students but Require Advance Registration!
